

AUSTRALIAN SCHOOL LIBRARIAN

INDEX 1977, VOLUME 14

This index has been compiled by Brenda Miller, a SLAV member who is also a member of The Society of Indexers.

Titles of articles are in roman type and are followed by the author's name in parentheses. Subject headings are in capitals; titles of books and periodicals are in italic type.

Book reviews are listed in a separate sequence under both author and title of book. The reviewer's name is given in parentheses at the end of the author entry.

The editor wishes to express her thanks to the indexer for this her third year of assistance to the Australian School Librarian.

THE ASLA PAGE

John Ward, Vice-President, Australian School Library Association

The President, Peter Matthews, prepared and contributed the first ASLA page (ASL v14 no2 1977) which dealt with developments within ASLA. This second page gives information about the chain of international organizations of which ASLA is a link.

ASLA is a Member of IFLA (International Federation of Library Associations)

IFLA offers you and your library everything you and your library wish for professionally and turns your idealism into reality.

Through IFLA you help to build a new world on the basis of information.

Through IFLA you

- * meet colleagues from more than 100 countries

- * gather and contribute know-how
- * realize the importance of international librarianship

- * experience the profound satisfaction of being international

Within IFLA you can

- * participate in the work of sections, committees and working groups

- * attend conferences and seminars all over the world

Your library benefits from the services of

- * the IFLA headquarters at The Hague

- * the IFLA international office for universal bibliographic control at London

- * the IFLA office for international lending at Boston Spa

- * the IFLA regional bureaux for Africa, Asia and Latin America

Membership includes (free by airmail)

- * IFLA journal

- * IFLA annual

- * IFLA director

in addition, there is an appreciable discount on many other IFLA publications

IFLA stands firm for the interest of libraries and librarians all over the world by representing them in their relations with

- * UNESCO

- * ISO (International Organisation for Standardisation)

- * ICSU (International Council of Scientific Unions)

- * WIPO (World Intellectual Property Organisation)

- * FID (International Federation for Documentation)

- * ICA (International Council on Archives) and many other international organisations.
